PIENDISH WHISKY

BY THE AUTHOR OF "COWSKINNER'S ROOM No doubt you've-heard of Wichita, A city 'long the Arkansaw; She fears not God nor Kansas law,

But worships fiendish whisky, O! A fairer town is seldom seen, Of all other Kansas towns, the Queen; Her Pa was Dutchbillgreiffenstein, But ah! she was raised on whisky, O!

She awears St. John she'll ever hate She'll drink her beer in spite of fate; In spite of either church or State, She'll cling to flendish whisky, O!

There's Bill, and Wall, and Dave, and Sluss And many another lawyer cuss; Are making wealth out of the fuss, That's raised o'er fiendish whisky, O!

Poor, dear, deluded Wichita, You'd better far respect the law: Far better drink the Arkansaw. Than swallow flendish whicky, O' Reform, ye Kansans, near and far,

Nor waste your substance at a "bar;" But wage an unrelenting war, On rum, and fiendish whisky, O! Take hold at once, nor stay your hand, Until you plant o'er all the land,

A higher civilization grand, O'er the grave of flendish whisky, O! It is "the proper caper" to send your sweetheart a valentine this year.

The World-Renowned HOWE SEWING MACHINES.

THE LAST.

THE NEW HOWE SEWING MACHINE.

The Stitch Regulator on the top changes, instantly, the length of the stitch without change of tension.

The Treadle has new bearings, and can be taken off without removing the treadle rod.

The Pitman is adjustable, and can be loosened or tighened when accessary.

The simplicity, beauty and general finish of the machine is not excelled.

It is the strongest and most durable machine made.

In range of work these machines cannot be excelled. They make the celebrated Lock-stitch—the sitch invented by Mr. Howe-allike on both sides.

The New "B" machine is particularly adapted for doing every kind of family sewing, and is an honest and faith in friend to every one using it.
